Dear Mr. Lee

This letter describes the rights and duties arising from the Certificate of Appointment.

1. The certificate was issued in order to confirm the laboratory its compliance with certain aspects of ISO/IEC 17025 as demonstrated during an audit performed by TÜVRheinland. However, this certificate is in no way a general accreditation according to ISO/IEC 17025.
2. The certificate is basically valid for 18 months, provided that follow-up audits can prove that compliance is maintained.
3. During the period of validity, the laboratory is entitled to carry out tests under the supervision of TÜVRheinland engineers under the scope of appointment.
4. The laboratory may use the certificate to advertise for its own services with a full copy of the certificate as long as the consumer will not be mislead through incomplete, or wrong statements.
5. This certificate in no way entitles the laboratory to perform testing and / or certification services on behalf or in the name of TÜVRheinland or one of its allied.
6. Therefore any display of TÜVRheinland logo, name, or company name on laboratory's documents (for advertisements, test reports, certificates and similar) in any form require TÜV Rheinland's written approval.
7. Any changes in organization or technical specification that affect the appointment must be reported to TÜVRheinland immediately.
8. In case of infringement of the above mentioned points or misuse of the certificate which may have affect the brand of TÜVRheinland, TÜVRheinland will maintain the right to take legal action.

Yours sincerely,
Certification Body
